

Attilio De Simone

General Manager

He graduated in Economics in an Italian University. He professionally grew in Germany, where he lived for about 10 years alternating his activity as a teacher at Hochschule Neubrandenburg university and as a consultant for German companies which wanted to approach to the Italian market. He has been operating in energetic and photovoltaic field since 2008 as manager, CEO, General Manager, Commercial Director and Asset Manager for international companies. He has a wide knowledge in photovoltaic sector thank to his previous many experiences in this field. Since 2016, he has been working as General Manager in Consorzio ECO-PV.